

Joint Proclamation

Whereas federal, state, regional, and local governments have an interest in promoting improved communication and the use of mediation to settle a wide range of disputes; and

Whereas Whatcom County and the City of Bellingham actively promote the use of our community-based dispute resolution center by residents through legislation and funding; and

Whereas thousands of community members are served annually by community-based mediators to settle conflicts between family members, neighbors, friends, tenants, landlords, merchants, consumers, employees, employers, civic organizations, and government agencies; and

Whereas Whatcom County taxpayers, residents at large, families, schools, workplaces, and municipalities benefit greatly from the financial cost savings achieved when disputes are diverted from the Court system and settled amicably, affordably, and confidentially; and

Whereas conflict prevention via training and education, and conflict intervention via mediation, conflict coaching, facilitation, and supervised visitation increases the quality of life and opportunity to experience civic harmony for all residents of Whatcom County and the City of Bellingham, and;

Whereas the third Thursday in October has been designated as International Conflict Resolution Day;

Now, Therefore, Do We, Seth Fleetwood, Mayor of the City of Bellingham, and Satpal Singh Sidhu, Whatcom County Executive, hereby proclaim October 2020 to be in the City of Bellingham and Whatcom County and encourage all people in our community to join in this special observance.

Community Conflict Resolution Month

Signed this 29th day of September, 2020

Seth Fleetwood, Mayor
City of Bellingham

Satpal S. Sidhu, County Executive
County of Whatcom

