

Sites with Facilities More or Less Open to the Public and Potentially Comparable to Woodstock Farm (47 sites, 7-15-08)

Facility Name	Location	Facility Origin & Description	Publicly or Privately Owned Site	Public Operator	Private Operator Status: Non-profit or For-profit	Phone	Website	Additional Information
Meeker Mansion	Puyallup, WA	Originally single family home of Ezrea Meeker and wife; preservation of site instigated by Meeker Historical Society; facility is single family residence; site can accommodate up to 50 guests for wedding in 17 room house; site is in urban area;	Private	No	Non-profit	(253) 848-1770	http://www.meekermansion.org/	Open daily to public, but also hosts events such as weddings. Ezra Meeker society owns, operates, works to restore.
Victorian Manor	Snohomish, WA	Originally single family home, owned by various people over years and was antique store; preservation of site instigated by Tina Ruybal and family in 1997; facility can accommodate up to 90 people for indoor event or up to 150 can be seated in gardens for combined indoor outdoor event; rental includes use of two bathrooms, ballroom, bridal suite, full kitchen, and use of outdoor gardens; located in urban setting	Private	No	For-profit	(360) 568-8597	http://www.victorianmanor-at-sno.com/default.htm	Privately owned and operated for purpose of private events. Open daily for viewing tours, presumably for prospective clients.
Belltown Cottage Park	Seattle, WA	Originally private owned, community of several houses: 1998 bought by City of Seattle with Parks Funding; three small cottages on sight, along with park; site is in an urban area, no extensive parking available	Public	Yes	No	(206) 684-7041	http://www.seattle.gov/parks/proparks/projects/belltownCottages.htm	Small neighborhood park encompassing three historic cottages. Currently lived in, the cottages were restored and landscaped using park funds.
Langston Hughes Performing Arts Center	Seattle, WA	Formerly Jewish synagogue, and thus is large auditoriums style building; site is in an urban area	Public	Yes	No	(206)684-4757	http://www.seattle.gov/parks/Centers/langston.htm	Performing arts center under operation by Seattle Parks Dept. Located in historic landmark, that was formerly Jewish Synagogue

Kubota Garden	Seattle, WA	Original use of site was as garden of Kubota family; bought in 1987 by city at behest of people living around garden, who also managed for Seattle Landmarks Preservation Board to designate as National Historic Landmark in 1981; owned by Kubota family prior to public preservation; is a public garden, with no structures; 4.5 acres in size; up to 200 people accommodated; large parking lot that is able to accommodate buses; site is in urban area	Public	Yes	Non-profit neighborhood group helps secure funding for garden	206-684-4584	http://www.seattle.gov/parks/parkspaces/kubotagarden.htm	Japanese garden owned by City of Seattle, maintained by Parks Dept. Bought in 1987 from Kubota family, prior to which became Historic Landmark. Now open to public; weddings also can be held there
Parsons Garden	Seattle, WA	Original use of site was as personal garden of Reginald Parsons; donated to city of Seattle in 1950's; is a small public garden in urban area	Public	Yes		206-684-4081	http://www.seattle.gov/parks/parkspaces/parsonsgarden.htm#about
Camp Long	Seattle, WA	Originally part of golf course, and then built for organized scouting groups group of citizens; bought by city in 1984 by city of Seattle; has stone and wood lodge that can hold 72 people, 10 rustic cabins, and two covered shelter areas; also has climbing rock and rentable fire pit; 68 acre park; parking available in urban setting	Public	Yes		206 684-7434	http://www.seattle.gov/parks/Environment/camplong.htm	Operated by Seattle Parks Dept.; open to events of all kinds, as well as general day use by public. Also available for overnight stays in cabins; shelters available that can be used by groups for the day
Pritchard Island Beach	Seattle, WA	Original use of site was for bathing beach, then nursery by Seattle City Light; preservation instigated by Seattle Parks and Rec. in partnership with Friends of Pritchard Beach Park; is a rentable bathhouse on site; parking lot available; 19.10 acres; site is in urban area;	Public	Yes	Non-profit FOPB assists Seattle Parks and Rec. with restoration of wetland	(206)684-4075	http://www.scn.org/neighbors/pritchardpark/backgrounder.htm http://www.seattle.gov/parks/parkspaces/pritchardIslandBeach.htm	Park is sight of wetland restoration; has bathhouse available for rent.; neighborhood volunteer group has 20 members, seeks funding via grants to develop park, in partnership w/ others to restore wetlands

Roeder Home	Bellingham, WA	Originally privately occupied residence; site preservation instigated by Whatcom County; owned by Mrs. Donald Keyes prior to preservation; facility is a single family residence, in an urban setting	Public	Yes		(360) 733-6897	http://www.co.whatcom.wa.us/parks/culturalarts/roeder.jsp#rental	Sight is on National Register of Historic Places; open to public, but also can be used for events/weddings- owned by Whatcom County
Lairmont Manor	Bellingham, WA	Originally single-family home of Frances Larrabee; preservation of site instigated by Douglas family; large single family residence on site with gardens; located in urban area	Private	No	Non-profit	(360) 647-1444	http://www.lairmontmanor.com/default.htm	Operated by nonprofit, whom property is in trust to. All profits go to upkeep of house. Wedding, other events held there; national historic landmark
Hovander Homestead Park	Ferndale, WA	Original use was for single-family occupancy and farm activities of Hovander family; owned by Hovander family prior to restoration instigated by Whatcom County Parks and Rec.; facilities on site include barn, house, and shelter facilities; size of land is over 60 acres; parking is available; site is in suburban, semi-rural area.	Public	Yes		360) 384-3444	http://www.co.whatcom.wa.us/parks/hovander/hovander.jsp	Contains house, barn, livestock. Restored by county in 1971; house open to public during summer for tours free of charge; weddings and other events can make use of buildings for rental fee

North Overlook House	Portland, OR	Original purpose of site was as home for Raven family; sold by civic minded Elvira Raven in 1940's to City of Portland for preservation as public site and community center; further preservation instigated by Overlook Neighborhood Association in 2003 when City threatened to sell property due to budget restrictions; continues to be used as community center managed by Friends of Overlook House; facility on site is over 3,000 square foot family home; land located on is over 1 acre in size, located in residential area of Portland; facility can accommodate up to 75 people in winter, and up to 150 in the summer and fall	Public	No	Non-profit	(503) 823-3188	http://www.historicoverlookhouse.org/	Sight managed by volunteers with Friends of Overlook House, in contract with city Parks Dept. Is intended to be community center for weddings, education, social activities, etc. Sold to city for $1 for this purpose. All funds received used to further improve facilities.
Columbia Cottage	Portland, OR	Columbia Cottage originally dedicated in 1940 as community club; preservation of cottage instigated by citizens living around neighborhood, who formed nonprofit Friends of Columbia Park; owned by Portland Parks prior to preservation by FOCP; facility on site is brick building; only one event can be held at a time, with the building accommodating up to 75 people; facility includes kitchen, restroom, fireplace; limited street parking only; building is located in Columbia Park, in urban Portland area	Public	No	Non-profit	(503) 735-1537	http://www.focp.org/index.html	Brick building located in Columbia park, managed by nonprofit who rents out cottage- has rules and rates. Prior to that used by Parks Dept. as storage facility.

Multnomah Arts Center	Portland, OR	Original use as elementary school; Portland Parks instigated preservation of site; facility is institutional building; site is in urban area	Publicly owned	Yes		(503) 823-ARTS (2787)	http://www.multnomahartscenter.org/	Operated and owned by Parks since 1982. sought to make it community center, which offered wide range services. Did so by bringing in nonprofits to provide classes, who pay fees to lease building. Also available for rent by general public.
Van Valley House	Everett, WA	Original use of site was as family residence; site preservation instigated by City of Everett Parks and Rec.; Ed and Betty Morrow donated to City of Everett prior to preservation; facility on site is historic house; the site can accommodate up to one event at a time, with a max occupancy of 48 people, or 18 for formal dining; ample street parking is available; located in urban Everett area	Public	Yes		425 -257-6300	http://www.everettwa.org/default.aspx?ID=472	Home operated by Everett parks dept. Is on national register of historic places. Hold weddings and other events there for fee.
Stanley Park Pavilion	Vancouver, BC	Facilities include Rose Gardens, large ballroom and tea room, as well as patio and grill; accommodates from 50 to 500 people; located in Stanley Park in Vancouver, BC	Public?			604-602-3088	http://www.rosegardenteahouse.com/index.htm	A massive facility in Stanley Park, where weddings, various other types of meeting and events can be scheduled. Looks to be run by private company, but is on public land.
Barclay Heritage Square	Vancouver, BC	Historic house located in urban Vanc	Public	Yes		(604) 257-8349	http://www.city.vancouver.bc.ca/Parks/cc/westend/index.htm	Part of square owned at least in part by city, that is composed of historic houses. Barclay manor functions currently as a community center for seniors

Roedde House	Vancouver, BC	Original purpose of house was for occupancy of couple; in 1976, at urging of Community Arts Council of Vancouver was made a heritage landmark; 1980's, B.C. Heritage Trust, City of Vancouver, and Heritage Canada Foundation instigated preservation of site; further preservation instigated by nonprofit Roedde House Preservation Society who now runs site as museum and rental facility; facility on site is single family residence; site itself has limited parking, but nearby hotel provides additional capacity; house is in urban Vancouver area.	Public	No	Non-profit	(604) 684- 7040	http://www.roeddehouse.org/index.htm	This is a house museum, restored by city and historical society in 1980's. Further restroom done in 2000 under management of nonprofit formed.
Craigflow Manor and Schoolhouse	Victoria, BC	Original use of site was as farm for Hudson's Bay Company; subsequent use was for school, millworks, and single family occupancy; Province of BC acquired in 1960's for preservation, and declared National Historic site; further preservation being implemented by Land Conservancy; facilities on site include institutionally geared structure and large manor house;	Private	No	Non-profit-The Land Conservancy	250 479- 8053.	http://www.conservancy.bc.ca/content.asp?sectionack=Craigflower	Operated by The Land Conservancy (TLC)-a nonprofit who wants to open up sight to increased public use. Sight is a farm, with barn, historic house, and historic schoolhouse included.
Eagles Estate Heritage Garden	Burnaby, BC	Original purpose of site was as house and garden of Eagles family; City of Burnaby purchased from family in 1995 for preservation; Land Conservancy operates and occupies now, and is implementing further preservation; facilities on site include 1.6 acre garden, large house, and new gift shop; site is located next to a lake;	Public	No	Nonprofit-The Land Conservancy	(604) 733- 2313 for	http://www.conservancy.bc.ca/content.asp?sectionack=eagles_estate	Another historic building, complete with beautiful garden, operated by TLC. Owned by city of Burnaby, partnered with TLC to try to restore-is currently under way, opened sight to public, have caretaker living on premises, use many volunteers, TLC has located offices there.

Keating Farm Estate	Vancouver Island	Original use was as farm and estate; bought by Land Conservancy from Hugo Tews, who used as a farm; 12 facilities exist on the site, including a large historic farmhouse, dairy facility and a barn; property is 32 acres in size, and has working hayfield and small dairy farm; road parking available; site is in Agricultural Land Reserve	Private	No	Nonprofit-The Land Conservancy		http://www.conservancy.bc.ca/content.asp?sectionack=Keating farm	Another location managed, and owned by TLC
Emily Carr House	Victoria, BC	Original use of site as house of Emily Carr; facility on sight is historic Victorian house; site is in urban Victoria area	Public	No	?-Clio Arts Ass. Ltd. Operates	250 383-5843	http://www.emilycarr.com/main.html	A house once owned by famous BC artist. Is operated by Clio Arts Association Ltd. On behalf of the Province, opening the house for tours and other events subject to fees.
Egan House	Seattle, WA	Original constructed in 1958 as single family residence; purchased in 1998 by Historic Seattle for preservation; Seattle Parks and Rec. owns surrounding lands; facility on site is smaller sized house, now occupied by new residents; house is located in urban area	Public	No	Non-profit	(206) 622-6952	http://www.historicseattle.org/projects/eganhouse.aspx	Purchased via joint partnership of Historical Seattle and Seattle Parks and Recreation. Parks Dept. bought land around it as well. Society has done restoration work; house is currently being occupied by tenants
Good Shepherd Center	Seattle, WA	Original use was as shelter for young women; City of Seattle bought in 1975 for preservation purposes, and then transferred to nonprofit Historic Seattle; facility on site is large, four+ story institutional building, capable of handling many events at once inside, as well as in surrounding gardens; parking lot is available, along with street parking; site is located in urban area	Private	No	Non-profit	(206) 622-6952	http://www.historicseattle.org/projects/gsc.aspx	Originally bought by Parks Dept. but then transferred to Historic Seattle for preservation. Currently is open to public for events. Also houses several schools and nonprofits.

Grist Mill and Gardens	Keremeos, BC	Original use as flour mill by Mr. Barrington Price in 1877; preservation instigated in 1978 by BC Heritage Trust; facility on site is historic industrial mill, with surrounding gardens, newer visitor center, wheat fields, and newer exhibition center; car and bus parking is available in parking lot; site is in rural area	Public	No	Non-profit	(250) 499-2888	http://www.tsa.gov.bc.ca/heritage_branch/heritage_sites/grist_mill.htm	W.J. Stelmaschuk and Associates Ltd. Operates mill; has been restored, and has working water wheel, along with original machinery which actually produces flour; tourists can come in and experience this w/ hands on exhibits.
Historic Fort Calgary	Calgary, AB	Original use as fort for Canadian Mounted Police; Sight bought from railroad company, who used for industrial purposes, by City of Calgary; Fort Calgary Preservation Society works to maintain replicas of former fort buildings, which were burned and torn down in past years; facilities on the site includes a replica of a Fort and barracks, an Interpretive Center, and a historic house; site itself is 40 acres in size, located in suburban type area.	Public	No	Non-profit	(403)290-1875	http://www.fortcalgary.com/	Officially owned by city of Calgary, but operated by Fort Calgary Preservation Society as separate entity, for benefit of Calgary citizens. Staff at the fort are employed by nonprofit preservation society. Has a museum on sight, but also puts on events such as weddings, Christmas celebrations.
Lougheed House	Calgary, AB	Built in 1891 for Senator James Lougheed and his wife; 1930's city took title to the house due to Great Depression; 1978 provincial government took hold of house for preservation; formerly was occupied by Red Cross as headquarters; 1995 Lougheed house conservation society created by Historical Society of Alberta spearheaded restoration of the house; site includes large house. gift shop inside house and gardens; open to public or private functions of up to 120 people; portions of house or gardens can be rented;	Public	No	Non-profit	(403) 244-6333	http://www.lougheedhouse.com/	Operated by Lougheed House Preservation Society, but owned by Province of Alberta. Is dedicated to restoration and reuse of property and opening it to all Canadians for enjoyment and education activities.

Octagon Barn	Gagetown, MI	Original use of site was as farm of Mr. James Purdy who bought site in 1907, and subsequently built structures; site includes historic 14,300 square foot octagon barn, 12 room Craftsman style house, powerhouse, and garage; sight preservation instigated by Friends of Octagon barn who formed in 1993; bought and assumed control of barn from Michigan DNR; site is 26.5 acres in size, and has available parking; site is in rural area	Private	No	Non-profit	(989)-665-0081	http://www.thumboctagonbarn.org/	This is a barn on the National Historic Registry, and is run by The Friends of Thumb Octagon Barn, who wish to restore the building and make it a heritage sight. The MI DNR originally owned the land and buildings, but had no interest in restoring them. When threatened with demolition, the community group formed to save and preserve the buildings. Over the years, they have slowly gained more control over the sight, and now own it. They run tours, and educational events at the sight, and have experimented with caretakers living on sight, and providing tours and educational activities.
Stimson-Green Mansion	Seattle, WA	House purchased in 1975 from Joshua and Missy Green by Historic Seattle, which initiated preservation of the site; subsequently sold to Priscilla Collins, who initiated preservation of the house; subsequently gifted in 2001 to Washington Trust for Historic Preservation for use as its headquarters; facility capacity from 40 people for sit-down function, to 200 for a reception; event parking for up to 50 cars; located in urban area.	Private	No	Non-profit	(206) 624-0474	http://www.stimsongreen.com/index1.htm

Dearborn House	Seattle, WA	Originally built in 1907 for Henry H. Dearborn; subsequent use as medical offices over years, until 1997 when gifted to Historic Seattle for preservation and restoration; site includes single family residence which houses administrative offices of Historic Seattle; located in urban area	Private	No	Non-profit	(206) 622- 6952	http://www.historicseattle.org/about/dearbornhouse.aspx
Elm Bank Reservation	Wellesley, MA	Original use of site was as private residence in 1600's; subsequent use by many parties, including as technical school prior to current ownership by Commonwealth of Massachusetts; 1996 Massachusetts Horticulture Society instigated preservation of site, signing a lease of site; site contains institutional style building, greenhouses, and over 3,000 square foot house; maximum occupancy of the house is 250, expandable to 500 with the use of an attached three season tent; entire site area with gardens is 36 acres; parking lots are available; site is in urban area	Public	No	Non-profit	617- 933- 4900	http://www.masshort.org/
Reader Rock Garden	Calgary, AB	Originally garden of William Roland Reader, Superintendent of Calgary Parks; Roland owned prior to instigation of preservation, by recommendation by City of Calgary committee; grant received in 2003 from Infrastructure Canada-Alberta Program for restoration; site includes gardens, gazebo, and residential structure; is 3 acres in size; location is in urban area	Public	Yes		403-221- 4500	http://www.calgary.ca/portal/server.pt/gateway/PTARGS_0_0_776_278_0	House on site features restaurant, and is available for scheduled events.

Robinsonwood House	Bellevue, WA	Original use of site as family residence for Hans Miller, built by him in 1895; site contains house, adjacent log cabin or cabana, barn, two patios and sunken garden; house has 1,420 sqf of indoor space, and can accommodate up to 90 guests in four rooms; can accommodate up to 200 for indoor/outdoor events; site could accommodate up to 4 smaller events at once; parking is available; site located in urban area, next to 60 acre Robinsonwood Park.	Public	No	For-profit	(425) 865-0210
The Lodge at Beaver Lake Park	Sammamish, WA	Original use of site as summer resort, which included numerous small cabins; Prior to preservation, site owned by Catholic Archdiocese for use by Catholic Youth Organization; they ran a youth camp there; bought for preservation by King County in 1985, and subsequently sold to City of Sammamish in 2003; site contains lodge, adjacent pavilion and surrounding lawns capable of accommodating from 50 to 300 people; main room in lodge is app. 1500 sqf, w/ additional kitchen; parking is available; site is located in 83 acre Beaver Lake Park, next to lake itself.	Public	No	For-profit	(425) 865-0210

http://eastsidemeetings.com/index.html	Wedding services on site provided by Seattle Bride, which is part of Premiere Properties, the site manager; owned by Bellevue Parks Dept. Address: Premiere Properties 2430 148th Ave. S.E. Bellevue, WA 98007 (425) 865-0210
http://www.eastsidemeetings.com/blabout.html	Wedding services on site provided by Seattle Bride, which is part of Premiere Properties, the site manager; owned by City of Sammamish Address: Premiere Properties 2430 148th Ave. S.E. Bellevue, WA 98007 (425) 865-0210

Clise Mansion	Redmond, WA	Originally built in early 1900's as hunting lodge for Seattle banker James Clise; subsequent use for horse breeding, cattle, and dairy farm; King County instigated preservation of site; prior to preservation, owned by investment group who intended to develop site (around 1959); King County instigated present use of site, as park and location for wedding ceremonies; facility is 28 room house, located in Marymoor Park; is surrounded by large gardens, inc. gazebo, and windmill and can accommodate up to 500 guests; parking is available; site is located in suburban area.	Public	No	For-profit	(425) 865-0210	http://eastsidemeetings.com/index.html	Wedding services on site provided by Seattle Bride, which is part of Premiere Properties, the site manager; owned by King County Parks Dept. Address: Premiere Properties 2430 148th Ave. S.E. Bellevue, WA 98007 (425) 865-0210
Beau Lodge	Skagit Co. WA	An attractive wedding and party setting, remote for virutally all users and with no connection to civic heritage.	Private	No	For-profit		http://www.beaulodge.com/
Kirkman House	Walla Walla, WA	Need more information. History emphasis (Victorian residence) with some crafts programs.	Public?	?	?
Pilchuck Glass School	Stanwood, WA	A wonderful residential arts and learning center in a Woodstock-like (well, not quite) rural setting. TW.	Private	No	Non-profit or both		http://www.pilchuck.com/default.htm
Bullock Farm (Permaculture Homestead)	West Sound, Orcas Is., WA	A heavy permaculture and learning emphasis that is not suited to Woodstock in scale, but perhaps selectively as site elements. TW.	Private	No	Non-profit or both		http://www.permacultureportal.com/
Nesset Farm	Acme, Whatcom Co., WA	Comparable in terms of retention of historical site components. Zeitgeist driven. TW.	Public	No?	Private Non-profit partner?
Big Rock Garden	Bellingham, WA	Comparable in terms of parking and access. Sculpture garden and focused horticultural emphasis. TW.	Public	Yes, partly	Non-profit
Sooke Harbor House	Sooke, BC	Comparable in terms of site and scale, Very different in terms of residential lodge aspect. The art is overly universal and hip. The food and setting ar great. TW.	Private	No	For-profit		http://www.sookeharbourhouse.com/

Cama Beach Resort	Stanwood, WA	Comparable in terms of potential shoreline heritage theme and possible historic rowing boat theme, which could be a lesser theme at Woodstock due to restricted harbor conditions. TW	Public	No?	Non-profit	http://www.cwb.org/CamaBeach.htm
Anderson Creek Lodge	Everson, WA	Lodge model not comparable, although rural retreat venue may have some similarities to what Woodstock could offer. TW	Private	No	For-profit	http://www.andersoncreek.com/
Sitka Center for Art &amp; Ecology	Neskowin, OR	Scale may be comparable. Mission of arts plus environment seems fitting but could overwhelm broader history and learning objectives. Arts focus excludes some general meeting/learning uses.	Private	No	Non-profit	http://www.sitkacenter.org/
Dorris Ranch Living History Farm	Springfield, OR		Public	Yes		http://www.dorrisranch.org/facility.html
Bigelow House	Olympia, WA		Private	No	Non-profit	http://bigelowhouse.org/	