

Joint Proclamation

WHEREAS; Whatcom County recognizes the importance of helping children find permanent, safe and loving families through adoption; and

WHEREAS; more than 400,000 children in the United States foster care system are waiting to be adopted; and

WHEREAS; 9,200 children in Washington state are in foster care, and of those, 1,900 children under age 18 are legally free to be adopted; and

WHEREAS; outreach to adoptive families has been identified as a critical step in moving children more quickly out of foster care and into loving, permanent homes; and

WHEREAS; to help these children find new homes, the Whatcom County Superior Court on November 22, 2019 will celebrate adoptions and the parents who welcome these children into their families;

WHEREAS; this effort, along with similar celebrations across the country, will offer children a chance to live with stable and loving families and encourage other adults to consider making a powerful difference in the life of a child through adoption.

NOW, THEREFORE, DO WE, Kelli Linville, Mayor of the City of Bellingham, and Jack Louws, Whatcom County Executive, hereby proclaim Friday, November 22, 2019 to be in the City of Bellingham and Whatcom County, and in doing so, we encourage all citizens to join in the national effort to raise awareness of the importance of adoption for foster children and all children needing safe, loving families.
