

CITY OF BELLINGHAM
OFFICE OF THE MAYOR
KELLI LINVILLE

MAYORAL PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Sean Humphrey House was established in 1996, and has been in continuous existence since that date; and

WHEREAS, Sean Humphrey House is one of two remaining Adult Family Homes in Washington for people living with HIV/AIDS; and

WHEREAS, Sean Humphrey House embodies the values and objectives of our City and provides safe, comfortable and affordable housing for those living with HIV/AIDS, and is a conduit for counseling, case management, primary and specialized medical care, behavioral health services and an advocate for state and national health initiatives; and

WHEREAS, Sean Humphrey House has made important advances in the fight against HIV and AIDS, by investing in community solutions and leveraging local resources; and

WHEREAS, it is important to remind people that HIV has not gone away and more needs to be done, and;

WHEREAS, Sean Humphrey House demonstrates leadership, commitment and dedication to our City by making an intensive commitment to service; and

WHEREAS, the City of Bellingham and its residents are thankful to Sean Humphrey House for its leadership in the strategic response to HIV/AIDS in our community.

NOW, THEREFORE, DO I, Kelli Linville, Mayor of the City of Bellingham, hereby proclaim August 18, 2018 to be in the City of Bellingham and celebrate 22 years of extraordinary service and generosity by Sean Humphrey House board members, staff, volunteers and interns. I urge all citizens to join me in recognizing Sean Humphrey House for its contributions in the City of Bellingham, Washington.

SEAN HUMPHREY DAY

Signed this 1st day of May, 2018

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "Kelli Linville".

Kelli Linville, Mayor
City of Bellingham