

Joint Proclamation

WHEREAS, administrative professionals, including secretaries, administrative assistants, executive assistants, office managers and other administrative support staff, make up one of the largest segments of the world's workforce; and

WHEREAS, International Association of Administrative Professionals (IAAP) is the acknowledged leader in assigning office professionals with personal and professional growth, and the Bellingham branch is committed to office professionals in our local community through education, programs and networking; and

WHEREAS, in April, IAAP and other members of our community will celebrate the substantial contributions of these dedicated members of our business community; and

WHEREAS, the IAAP chose the theme "We Empower | We Develop | We Progress" for this year; and

WHEREAS, this year marks the 69th anniversary of Administrative Professionals Week, formerly known as National Secretaries Week, which was established in 1952 to recognize the contributions of office support staff in business and government and to attract people to those careers; and

WHEREAS, the week of April 19 through April 23 has been designated Administrative Professionals' Week by the International Association of Administrative Professionals, its founder and sponsor.

NOW, THEREFORE, DO WE, Seth Fleetwood, Mayor of the City of Bellingham, and Satpal Singh Sidhu, Whatcom County Executive, proclaim the week of April 19-23, 2021 to be in the City of Bellingham and Whatcom County, and ask that management in our community join in recognizing these outstanding professionals in their employ.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROFESSIONALS' WEEK

Signed this 1st day of April 2021.

Seth Fleetwood, Mayor
City of Bellingham

Satpal Singh Sidhu, County Executive
Whatcom County
