JOB SUMMARY:

Meets the needs of children, families and community members serving children and families through the development and implementation of children's library services. Services include preparing and presenting storytimes and other programming, providing instruction on library technologies and tools, providing outreach to schools, daycares and community organizations and connecting children and families to relevant library materials and resources. Provides system-wide expertise and training on children's literature, child development and current research, trends and focuses in children's services. Develops and maintains specific areas of the library's materials collections in all formats. Provides welcoming, friendly, efficient, knowledgeable and professional customer and library service to internal and external customers.

SUPERVISORY RELATIONSHIP:

Reports to the Library Deputy Director. Works independently under the guidance of city and library policies and procedures. May provide training, direction and technical guidance to staff in a lower classification and volunteers as assigned.

ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS OF THE JOB:

1. Develops and implements storytimes, programs, workshops, classes, tours, and other community outreach to meet the reading and educational interests of the community and further the mission of the library. Programs and events take place in the library and out in the community.
2. Serves as a professional library resource by recommending children's library materials in all formats to library patrons and community groups; provides leadership and trains staff in children's library materials recommendations, trends in reading and publishing, and community reading and learning interests.
3. Provides outreach to and develops partnerships with educational institutions and educators, childcare facilities, city departments and community organizations serving children and families. Focuses on aligning and connecting library services with the children and families served by those organizations and institutions.
4. Builds and maintains relationships in the community with individuals and organizations to develop library partnerships that meet community needs. Speaks publicly to groups about the library and its services and resources.
5. Teaches community members and staff how to effectively use library resources and technologies, developing appropriate methods and curriculum for varied audiences.

6. Develops and maintains a physical and digital collection that anticipates and meets the needs of children, ensuring it is diverse, current and relevant. Actively seeks feedback from the public and staff and routinely conducts collection maintenance.
7. Provides professional public service, including information, research services and circulation functions, in person, over the phone and digitally.
8. Participates with colleagues in cross-functional teams to accomplish goals and objectives.

ADDITIONAL WORK PERFORMED:

1. May be responsible for library services for a specific population or specialized library service.
2. May serve on library or community committees.
3. May draft library policies or procedures.
4. May serve as person-in-charge in the absence of library management staff.
5. May seek grant opportunities and prepare grant proposals.
6. May assist with developing and maintaining content for social media platforms and the library website.
7. May act in a leadership role for projects, tasks, or events.
8. Performs other duties within the scope of the classification.
