JOB DESCRIPTION

JOB TITLE: Head of Public Services

UNION: 231

DEPARTMENT: Library

SG: 6

CS: N

FLSA: N

EEO4CODE: PR

JOB SUMMARY:

Responsible for oversight of Public Services and Security functions at all Bellingham Public Library locations. Performs professional administrative and supervisory work. Manages, plans, organizes, directs, implements, and assesses system-wide public services and security functions. Develops policies, procedures, processes, and service standards to guide the work of library staff working at all public service points. Develops and administers security response protocols and oversees security personnel.

SUPERVISORY RELATIONSHIPS:

Reports to the Library Director. Serves as a member of the Library senior management team. Work is performed under general guidance and direction and the guidance of City and Library policies and procedures. Directly supervises Supervisor of Public Services, assigned Library Specialists, and Security and Information Attendants; indirectly oversees the work of Library Clerks and other staff reporting to subordinate supervisor. Provides functional direction to those working at public service points. Works collaboratively with all library staff, our partner library staff, city staff, and the community. Requires extensive communication, collaboration and planning with other members of the Library's management team to address the cross-functional nature of library public services.

ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS OF THE JOB:

DIRECTS AND MANAGES PUBLIC SERVICES AND SECURITY

1. Oversees the daily activities of library public services, including development and implementation of policies and procedures. Works with subordinate supervisor to develop plans, evaluate workload and activities of the workgroup. Develops and makes recommendations to the library director in areas such as resource allocation, budget management and long-range planning.
2. Either directly or through a subordinate supervisor, supervises, develops performance expectations, trains, evaluates and manages performance. Evaluates and makes recommendations on staffing levels, staff development needs, and other personnel matters. Leads in the selection and recommendation for hire of public services staff and assists with other staff appointments as appropriate.
3. Either directly or through a subordinate supervisor, oversees the work of public services personnel. Sets service standards, coordinates workload, projects staffing needs, and schedules public services staff at all locations to provide high level public services to patrons with diverse needs.

4. Either directly or through a subordinate supervisor, manages and directs the work of Security and Information Attendants. Oversees the daily security activities, including development and implementation of policies and procedures, setting service standards, and projecting staffing needs to provide high level of service to staff and patrons.
5. Develops, implements and oversees the Library's security response protocols. Ensures staff have an effective structure to use to respond to incidents and a supportive environment to rely on after security or behavioral incidents occur. Ensures security protocols are consistent with the building safety and emergency plans that are under the purview of the Head of Operations.
6. Participates in working groups and community networks to ensure that the Library is aware of resources and, when appropriate, is part of connecting the public to human services. Liaises with social service organizations to ensure that library staff are knowledgeable about community resources available.
7. Oversees the Library's mobile public services, including services to assisted living facilities.
8. Coordinates the Library's response to emerging issues that impact public services. Conducts research, evaluates issues, consults with other library systems and City departments, makes recommendations and implements response plans as appropriate.
9. Evaluates current services and responds to evolving needs of library patrons. Monitors, analyzes and evaluates the efficacy of service delivery. Develops and recommends plans for future needs in the areas of staffing, funding, and additional service requirements.
10. Collaborates with partner libraries to align Public Services policies and procedures to provide seamless library services in the region.
11. Coordinates with the Head of Digital Services and participates in planning changes or updates to the Integrated Library System as they pertain to Public Services.
12. Responsible for the Public Services budget. Prepares, recommends, and administers assigned budgets, and monitors expenditures. Ensures that library revenue (account payments, public copier/printer revenue) is collected and managed in compliance with City policy and State Auditor's recommendations.
13. Prepares, interprets, analyzes, summarizes, and presents various routine and non-routine reports about library services and objectives.

PROVIDES ADMINISTRATIVE LEADERSHIP
