NATURE OF WORK:

Responsible for assisting Police Department personnel with law enforcement related tasks that do not require the authority of a sworn, commissioned police officer. Performs a wide variety of specialized and technical non-sworn law enforcement duties in support of Police operations and services in the areas of patrol, outreach, investigations, evidence, forensics, training, and other areas as assigned. Provides information and assistance to the public and performs a variety of other non-sworn law enforcement technical and administrative functions in support of police operations and activities.

DISTINGUISHING CHARACTERISTICS:

The Community Service Officer is distinguished from the Police Officer classifications by the latter's responsibility for performing the full range of commissioned law enforcement activities. The Community Service Officer is distinguished from other non-sworn office and administrative classifications by the primary focus on assisting commissioned personnel in performing law enforcement duties which frequently requires significant contact with the public to supply or gather information by telephone or in person.

Community Service Officer I– This is the entry-level classification in the Community Service Officer class series. The Community Service Officer I primarily performs duties in support of patrol operations. Work assignments vary depending upon the function to which individuals are assigned and to meet departmental staffing and work productivity requirements.

Community Service Officer II– The Community Service Officer II is distinguished from the Community Service Officer I by the performance of duties requiring a higher level of independence and discretion. The Community Service Officer II primarily performs technical duties in support of outreach, investigations, evidence, or forensics department functions. Appointment to the higher class requires a thorough knowledge of departmental policies and procedures applicable to the work and ability to work independently in multiple functional areas.
