023 City of Bellingham Guard Weekly Reports
Including Emphasis Patrols
For the month ending 12:00 on August 1

Saturday July 29
00:16 Guard reported he was screamed at by a transient because he entered the Railroad Avenue Parking Guard. The individual got even more upset when the guard calmly asked him to move on. He increased his volume and starting cursing the guard before he finally calmed down and left the facility.

02:13 Guard reported hearing fireworks being set off in or near the Commercial Street Parking Garage. When he arrived, he found a skateboard and a bag on the fourth floor. He took the items up to the fifth floor where he found an older teenager (15-17) carrying a smoldering, twelve pack, of used Roman Candles. He told the guard that no matter how it looks, he did not set off the fireworks. Guard told him, in the future, leave the fireworks alone and call 911 and let the police handled the situation. Guard gave the teenager his skateboard and pack. He cautioned him that skateboarding is not allowed in or on any City parking facility.

02:41 Guard requested a new group of transients leave the Railroad Avenue Parking Garage. He stayed on site until the last of the group complied.

07:11 Guard received a request from the RC at Francis Place that he deal with a vehicle in their parking lot that had its door open all night.

07:23 Guard arrived and spoke with the owner of the green Chevrolet pick up he found sleeping in its bed. He had forgotten to close the driver’s side door. Guard requested he move on and he complied.

17:39 Guard was requested by staff at Saltadena Bakery to deal with a transient who had overstayed his welcome in their restroom.

17:44 Guards reported the individual had left the Bakery before they arrived.

Sunday July 30
00:36 Guard noted the presence of a series of personal effects on the metal bench outside the Lightcatcher Museum. Owner not currently in area.

01:52 Guard received a call from the staff at the Hotel Leo requesting he deal with a person hanging out on their property.

01:58 Guard arrived and found a male transient loitering in a blind spot of the exterior cameras. He agreed to move on when guard asked him to.

14:49 Guards located a transient group camped in the back lot of Base Camp up against the building. Another group was smoking in the bushes. Guards notified both groups it was time to move on. The smoking group left immediately. The camping group was packing up as the guards returned to their regular patrols.
Monday July 31

00:20 Guard found a male transient laying down in front of City Hall. He told guard he would move on within the next fifteen minutes.

04:15 Guard found two transients charging their cell phones in the Commercial Street Parking Garage. They packed up and left when they saw the guard approaching.
