2023 City of Bellingham Guard Weekly Reports
Including Emphasis Patrols
For the week ending on June 23

Saturday June 17

00:35 Guard photographed an unoccupied dark blue Tesla in the Whatcom Museum parking lot.

00:56 Guard spoke with a group of transients in the Railroad Avenue Parking Garage. He requested they move on and they dispersed.

1:52 Guard spoke with the owners of the Tesla. He let them know that this parking lot is reserved for those having business with the Museum. He suggested they park on the street and pay the meter as it is cheaper than recovering a towed vehicle.

17:13 Guard encountered several groups of transients on the first level of the Railroad Avenue Parking Garage. While the guard was requesting the groups pack up and move on within the next thirty minutes, two females in a car were telling one of the females in the group that she does not have to move. Guard let the person know that their information was incorrect, and failure to comply could bring the BPD into the situation.

17:17 Guard observed two males with duffel bags looking at something by the sidewalk on the York Street side of Base Camp.

17:20 Guard observed a currently vacant blue tarp in a bush on the side of the Municipal Courthouse Building.

18:10 Compliance check on groups at the Railroad Avenue Parking Garage, found some of the transients had moved on, some were still packing, a third group seems to have ignored her request to move on. She let the latter group know, failure to move on will bring the BPD onto the site.

18:14 Guard reported the two transient males on the York Street sidewalk had been joined by three additional male transients. They told her they were waiting for Base Camp to open.

19:16 Guard encountered a group of transients smoking in the Railroad Avenue Parking Garage. Guard let them know that there smoking was not allowed in any City property. One of the group was so far out of it that he fell to the floor, While guard was trying to do a welfare check on the transient on the pavement, his buddies were calling her a bitch for trying to get them not to smoke in the garage. A group of teenagers on the third floor were laughing at her and telling her to die. Guard left and called 911 to deal with the three people who were already high.

19:41 Guard returned to the Railroad Avenue Parking Garage to find the EMTs had transported the male who had fallen to the floor to the hospital. Three male transients on the second level left at request of guard. The teenagers had apparently moved on when they heard the BPD approaching.

19:48 Guard found three transients by the back corner of the Base Camp property near the sidewalk. She requested they move on and they complied.
21:28 Guard reported having a female transient tell angrily her: “You need to leave before you get hurt”. This conversation took place in the Railroad Avenue Parking Garage when the guard asked the individual if she was all right. Guard then asked her if she could move on within the next thirty minutes. Guard was given a hard stare but no verbal reply.

22:00 Compliance check found the female had moved on from the Railroad Avenue Parking Garage.

Sunday June 18

00:22 Guard encountered a female transient behind Base Camp. While she was away from her shopping cart some had ransacked it and spread her possessions over a sizeable area. When guard arrived, she was gathering up her belongings. Guard let her know of several places it should be save for her to go after she was ready to move on.

03:37 Guard observed a male screaming at himself walking back and forth in front of the Syre Museum. When guard approached, the male quit yelling, and walked away.

15:35 Guard found teenagers smoking on the second level of the Railroad Avenue Parking Garage. He told them smoking is not allowed in public buildings and they need to move on. They asked for five minutes.

15:48 Compliance check found the youth had left the Railroad Avenue Parking Garage. Guard encountered a new group of four transient adults, one of whom had hit her head on the concrete on the second level. Guard got her some ice and the group left the garage.

17:16 Guard spoke with two individuals she found meeting each other in the Railroad Avenue Parking Garage. They indicated that they had no plans on staying, it was just a convenient place to meet up.

18:10 Guard found a male in the yard of the Bellingham Public Library. As she approached, the individual told him he was okay and was just waiting for a ride.

18:31 Guard located a large group of transients by the bushes behind Base Camp. They agreed to pack up their possessions and leave the area within thirty minutes.

19:25 Guard observed a male trying to sleep on the Bellingham Public Library lawn. When she told him he could not sleep there, he grabbed a book and began to read.

19:34 Guard found a transient couple passed out on the second level of the Railroad Avenue Parking Garage. He woke the male up, who told him they would move on as soon as they were fully awake.

19:41 Compliance check at the Railroad Avenue Parking Garage revealed the sleeping couple had moved on. The guard found that a group of transients had moved in to the third level. He asked them to move on and waited on site until they left.

21:19 Guard photographed a large, currently unoccupied, transient camp on the parking lot of Base Camp.

21:24 Guard requested two transients move on from the benches in front of Syre Museum. They complied.
Monday June 19

00:13 Guard spoke with three people eating breakfast cereal, and smoking cigarettes, in the first level of the Railroad Avenue Parking Garage. They agreed to move on as soon as they finished eating.

00:53 Guard observed a fire in the bushes near the Bellingham Public Library. BPD and fire department on site to deal with it.

03:22 Guard observed two male transients sitting in the first level of the Railroad Avenue Parking Garage. He requested they pack up their belongings and move on. They immediately began to pack.

03:28 Guard woke up a male transient in the lower level of the Commercial Street Parking Garage. He agreed to pack up his possessions and move on within thirty minutes.

Emphasis Patrol 11:00 to 18:03

No activity to report

Tuesday June 20

00:19 Guard reported finding two groups of transients in the Railroad Avenue Parking Garage. Both groups agreed to the guard’s request that they pack up and leave within ten minutes. Guard photographed graffiti on the first and second floors.

00:24 Guard photographed property vandalism on the second floor of the Railroad Avenue Parking Garage next to the exit stairwell leaving from the third floor.

00:32 Guard photographed graffiti in the elevator of the Commercial Street Parking Garage

01:24 Compliance check at the Railroad Ave Parking Garage determined that the last of the two groups were in the process of leaving the garage as he approached. Guard photographed new graffiti on the rear pillar next to the alley and on the first floor wall.

01:41 Guard recorded that emergency services had been called for two comatose, overdose victims in the Railroad Avenue Parking Garage. EMT's were able to get the first male up and moving around. The second one was placed on a stretcher and taken to the hospital. His condition was unknown to guard.

01:55 Guard photographed additional graffiti on a pillar in the ground floor of the Railroad Avenue Parking Garage.

03:26 Guard did a wellness check on a male screaming at himself in front of the Bellingham Public Library. When asked if he was okay, the transient yelled at the guard, at the top of his lungs, that he was okay. He then proceeded to walk of the property.

06:42 Guard woke up a male transient from in front of the Syre Museum. Not at all happy about having his sleep interrupted, the male began screaming at the guard when he was asked to move along. After some unoriginal off color language, the individual did as requested.

07:38 Guard photographed new graffiti along the far wall of the Depot Market.
Emphasis Patrol 07:00 to 12:03

11:10 Guard reported requesting a female transient, with whom he has previously interacted, pack up her possessions and leave the area behind Base Camp. Due to the extent of her collection and her health concerns, guard gave her the rest of the day to clean up her area.

11:16 Stockton Paints set off their alarm to get large group of transients to move on from the alley behind their store. Guard arrived as the last of the group was leaving.

Emphasis Patrol 14:59 to 18:00

17:56 Compliance check on female transient camp behind Base Camp found she is making slow headway in getting her possessions organized.

18:21 Guard requested a male transient he found digging through the trash can at the Lightcatcher Museum, to move on. He complied.

20:21 Guard asked a female transient not to light up her foil in the Railroad Avenue Parking Garage. She left the facility.

21:31 Guards encountered a group smoking methamphetamine in the Railroad Avenue Parking Garage. They let the group know they needed to find a more private location for their illegal activity. The group requested ten minutes to gather their possessions, guards allowed, subject to compliance check at the end of the agreed time.

21:52 Compliance check revealed that the meth smokers at the Railroad Avenue Parking Garage had left he facility.

Wednesday June 21

00:36 Guard spoke with a male transient sitting on a bench in front of City Hall, talking to himself. He told guard he was enjoying a quick meal. Guard allowed him fifteen minutes to finish his meal and then it would be time to move on. Individual agreed.

Emphasis Patrol 10:00 to 17:44

11:10 Guard encountered a group of transients at entrance to the alley next to the Horseshoe Café. He requested they move on.

12:36 Additional compliance check on the female transient (initial contact, this event, yesterday at 11:10) behind Base Camp. She has defiantly made progress, but still has a long way to go.

Thursday June 22

03:05 Guard was requested by a female he found on the side of City Hall to get EMT assistance for her. Guard called 911 and EMT’s arrived and transported the female to the hospital.

Emphasis Patrol 10:52 to 18:00

16:34 Guard encountered a group of five male transients in the alley behind Evergreen Beauty College. He let them know it was time for them to move on. All five began packing up their belongings.
18:14 Guard photographed needle caps, indicating drug use, behind the Lightcatcher Museum next to the silos.

21:15 Guard photographed a currently unattended transient shopping cart in front of City Hall.

Friday June 23

00:04 Guard reported giving a group of loitering transients fifteen minutes to exit the Railroad Avenue Parking Garage. They agreed to do so.

00:12 Guard woke up a middle-aged male transient in the Mount Baker Theater archway. He agreed to pack up and move on within the next fifteen minutes.

00:25 Guard reported as he was patrolling the Municipal Court property a female jumped and started hitting his vehicle. Guard called for BPD assistance.

00:31 BPD arrive on site and attempt to talk the verbally violent female out of a cubbyhole in the Municipal Courthouse Building.

00:34 Officer told guard that he should go ahead as they were going to monitor her for a while in the expectation that the situation would calm down.

00:52 Guard responded to a call from the Horseshoe Café requesting he deal with dissatisfied customer who had been ejected from the Café and was now pacing up and down the sidewalk yelling.

00:55 Guard spoke with the individual, who told him he had been kicked out of the Café because they threw his food on the floor. Guard was able to calm him down and get him to move on.

01:11 Compliance check at the Mount Baker Theater required the guard to wake the male transient up again. Guard stayed on site until the individual had packed his possessions and moved on.

02:52 Guard reported the female from the 00:25 log entry was no longer on Municipal Court property, but she left a mess behind.

05:48 Guard woke up a male transient sleeping on the sidewalk on the back wall of the Commercial Street Parking Garage. He woke up angry and threw a can of beer, hitting the vehicle and the spray covering the guard through the open window. Guard called 911. The individual explicitly threatened to kill the guard while he was giving the dispatched the situation report.

16:04 Guard located two teenagers loitering in the Railroad Avenue Parking Garage. He requested they move on and they complied.

16:48 Guard responded to a 16:43 request by a local business owner to deal with a group of teenagers loitering in the Commercial Street Parking Garage courtyard. He requested they leave the area and they dispersed.

Emphasis Patrol 10:15 to 18:02
